BOXING SLATED FRIDAY

REC. DEPARTMENT TO HOLD 15 FREE MATCHES AT JEFF

Public Invited To Attend The Year's Biggest Event

by Milton Tromborg

The punch show of the season pulls into Daly City Friday night, August 11, as the Daly City Recreation department stages its annual free boxing matches.

Jefferson High schools gym will be the scene of the fights, and the first bout will get underway at 7:30 p.m. sharp.

Always packed with plenty of thrills, this year's matches promise to be the best yet.

The top fight of the evening will come when Don Espinoza meets Henry Bower. Espinoza is a Jefferson High student and is quite handy with the gloves. He entered the Examiner Golden Gloves fights last year and lost out with a decision in the semi finals.

Espinoza hits the scales at 140 pounds. He stands 5 feet 6 inches tall, with brown curly hair. True, every boy likes to fight a little, but Espinoza is an exception. He would like to make a living at it

HOW IT LOOKS FROM A CORNER

By BILL KATZ

That it is possible to be too aware of the communist menace was demonstrated last week end by a well-meaning Daly City resident.

Sunday afternoon, officers were called by a gentleman who said a group of "communists" with a petition had just called. They had asked him to sign a paper calling for immediate peace in Korea.

Investigating the "peace party," police found they were members of a religious organization as opposed to communism as blustering Congressman McCarthy.

The moral to this incident is obvious, but it should serve as a reminder that it is still possible to believe in principles opposed to general public opinion without flying the colors of Soviet Russia.

One of the most basic tenets of any working democracy is the acceptance of the "loyal opposition." Without such a check, any democratic country would soon find itself in the position of the totalitarian group it was combatting. For if democracy means nothing else, it denotes the strength to allow the still, weak voice of the minority to blast its beliefs to the high

Boys Club Members Enjoy Hot Dog Night

All members, and would-be members of the Daly City Boys Club, enjoyed a free hot dog night at the clubhouse Thursday evening, August 10.

Between their various activities, the lads managed to consume dozens of the dogs. The night was made possible by the contribution of the hot dogs by the Hilltop Meat Market, 6315 Mission street.

Meanwhile, close to 100 people last Friday evening witnessed the boxing matches in the clubhouse at No. 2 Hillside boulevard.

Winners of the matchess were Jerry Morgan (Jimmy Tait), Bill Tait (Carmen Bria), Ronald Gabbani (Frank Bria), Gary Stein (David Hebler), Kenny Klees (Daryl Hall), Joe Carineli (Carl Miller), Ben Miller (John Hebler), Joe Earnshaw (Ronald Pike), Lola Huntsman (Jerry Williamson).

Each of the boys was given a prize donated by one of the following merchants: Daly City Hardware, Lees Drug Store, Sprouse-Reitz, McGraw's Drug Store, Shannon Hardware, Karl's Shoe Store, Warshawski's Dry Goods Store.

Another much-needed contribution was forthcoming this week from Mrs. Upton of 58 Farrallones street, San Francisco. Not only did Mrs. Upton give the club a piano, but she also donated a phonograph.

Club Director Frank Bria said that both instruments will be used shortly in choral and show work.

The Daly City Lions Club also showed its faith in the club and its members this week by donating $25 toward the purchase of athletic equipment.

The Old Glory Post No. 2044, VFW, gave its support to the club recently by pledging a $5-a-month contribution.

Any indivdual, or organization which desires to help the club, either financially or by giving their time, is asked to contact Mrs. Marion McKaskle, secretary, at PLaza 5-2574.

Answer The "Greetings" RSVP In Person...Now

Although selective service officials are not concerned as yet, there have been rather substantial numbers of prospective draftees failing to show up for the physical examinations in some cities.

In New York, for instance, nearly 25 per cent of those to whom "greetings" were sent did not respond.

There are various reasons for this, officials say, such as the registrants being away on vacation, or having recently moved, and so on. Those who have married and think they are exempt, are warned to report anyway. Their status will be considered after they show up. In brief, don't ignore the "greetings."

PARKING METER SURVEY REPORT DUE AUGUST 21

Three Companies Plan Needs Of D. C. Area

Plans for installing parking meters in Daly City will be presented at a council meeting August 21, Orrin Wendling, city administrative officer, said today.

He said three meter companies are now investigating the needs of the community, and he expects their report sometime next week.

The companies will list where the meters should be installed, as well as their total cost to the community.

(The cost is expected to be born by the meters themselves. That is, they will be paid off over a period of time from the money deposited in ihe meters.)

Wendling was instructed to go ahead with the meter survey at the last council meeting. The council was prompted by a letter from seven business men on Mission street asking for some kind of parking regulation.

As yet, none of the merchants in the area has registered any protest concerning the installation of the machines, Wendling said.

When the plan for meters was introduced a year ago, it was defeated by merchants who claimed they would be a detriment rather than an asset to the community.

Heavy Grass Fire Sweeps Crocker Hills

In one of the severest grass fires of the summer, flames swept over the Crocker hills just east of Daly City Saturday afternoon.

Three Daly City fire companies were called to the blaze which started at 3:50 p.m. Although the fire was always under control, it took blaze-busters more than an hour to put out the last bit of burning grass.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy reports there was no damage.

Another minor grass fire was brought under control in a matter of minutes that same afternoon, just one hour earlier. This blaze was centered at the corner of School and Werner.

CIVIC LEADERS BACK $3 MILLION PROGRAM FOR 64 CLASSROOMS

Tentative approval of the Jefferson elementary school district's bid for 64 new classrooms was given Monday by the State Division of School House Planning.

James Snell, school superintendent, said the approval came after he had submitted plans which call for completion of three schools and the construction of three more. The final stamp of approval of the state will probably be forthcoming in September.

The aforesaid announcement was made at a Wednesday night meeting of civic leaders interested in seeing that children in this community are taken off double sessions.

Furthermore, Snell gave those present a complete outline of the program which must be passed by a two-third majority of the voters September 29.

"The purpose of this meeting is to make you, and all of the Jefferson elementary school district conscious of the dire necessity of passing the bond issue September 29," Snell said.

He asserted the present enrollment in the schools is 2,130, and the anticipated enrollment by the end of 1951 is 4,187. Presently there are 52 classrooms. To handle the rise in school population, 64 new classrooms are needed.

A state formula is used to work out the needs of the community and the expected growth in school enrollment. Such factors as the number of new homes built in the community, the influx of population, the birth rate, and many other items are used to reach the expected needs of the schools over a period of two years, Snell noted.

When the contemplated schools are completed the entire district will be organized so that children from kindergarten throught the fifth or sixth grades will have to go no more than one-half mile to school.

There will be two upper grade schools. One, situated in Colma, will serve all pupils west of Junipero Serra. The other, on the upper

ANNUAL KIDS' SWIM PARTY AUGUST 18th

Jefferson Pool Open To All Children Friday

Next Friday, August 18, the Daly City Recreation Department will hold its Fifth Annual Swimming Party at the Jefferson High School Pool.

All the facilities will be available to youngsters free of charge. The party will start at 10 a.m. and will last until noon.

Various contests and relays will be held for both the swimmers and non-swimmers. Comical diving will also be held, so think of some unconventional dives for the party. The swimming contests will be strictly for fun and not on a competitive bases. Parents are invited to come and watch the fun, too.

Next week is Aquatic Week on the recreation summer program and the swimming party is but one o fthe events scheduled. Wednesday there is to be an excursion on the San Francisco Bay.

All parents and youngsters who are interested in going on this excursion should contact the playground director nearest your home before Wednesday. There will be a nominal fee, paid to the person in charge of the boat making the trip.

This event has been a very enjoyable one in the past and should be better than ever this summer. (The boat will leave Pier 43 at 11 a.m.)

New Furniture Auction Well Received Here

Striking a responsive chord right off the bat, Hy Bloom, widely known auctioneer, revealed that his furniture auction, located at 2157 Junipero Serra Blvd., has found a warm spot in the hearts of the people hereabouts.

"Business is fine," asserted Hy, who operates the Gallo Furniture

Auction Galleries. "We started out modestly, holding only one sale a week, but the demand increased so much we now have up to four sessions a week.

"We believe that we were fortunate in picking the right time of doy for our get-togethers. It seemed to us that most folks were not free during the day, so we scheduled our sales for 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This week our doors will be open on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. as well.

Sound Sleep Costs $57

Waking up one member of the family, and walking near three others, an unidentified burglar Sunday morning got away with $57 from the Carl Biberdorff home, 500 Vista Grande.

The steady-nerved thief entered the house through an open back window, police said. As he made his way to the front room, the Biberdorff's daughter spotted the flashlight. However, she thought it was her uncle who was staying in the front room, and went back to sleep.

In the living room the thief lifted a suitcase near the head of the sleeping uncle, John Biberdorff. He went through the case, but took nothing.

Next, the burglar turned to the family bedroom where he took the cash from two wallets on a bureau only a few feet from Mr. and Mrs. Biberdorff.

The family, who had been celebrating a wedding that evening, did not discover the theft until they woke at 11 a.m. Sunday.

Dan Andersen To Head CC Drive

Dan Andersen, manager of the Daly City Theatre, will head the Community Chest drive in the Daly City area October 1.

As his first duty as leader of the all important fund drive, Andersen said that this years fund raising will be held for one hour between 1 and 2 p. m. Sunday, October 1.

This means that hundreds of workers will be needed to make the door to door collection. Anyone wishing to volunteer may do so by contacting either Andersen or the Daly City Record, PLaza 5-4321.

Also, volunteers may obtain further information from Andersen at the Daly City Theatre.

PG&E Pole K'Os Stockton Man

A Stockton, California, man came out a poor second best early Wednesday morning when the car he was driving smashed into a PG&E pole at Mission and Eastlake.

Suffering a fractured ankle, knee, and lacerations was John Cannon. At 2:20 a.m. he was rushed to the Junipero Serra hospital where he is still undergoing treatment.

Cannon told officers: "I was driving north on Mission . . . and the next thing I knew I found myself lying on the street next to my car."

While Cannon went to the hospital, his car was towed to a garage for extensive repairs.

And the post? Police report it was hardly dented.

Mrs. J. W. Marchbanks Has Private Audience With Pope

His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, at a private audience with Mrs. J. W. Marchbanks, July 20, gave his blessings to all those residing in Daly City and the Bay Area.

Mrs. Marchbanks and her sister, Miss Helen Jones, had the audience with The Pope at Castel Gandolfo, his summer villa. His Holiness discussed personally with Mrs. Marchbanks the problems and people of the Bay Area, and stated how pleased he was to have had the pleasure of blessing the Bay Bridge, the largest structure of its kind in the world.

The day before the private audience, Mrs. Marchbanks and her sister attended a general assembly held by The Pope at St. Peters.

They were accompanied on the trip by The Reverend Joseph Munier and his mother. Father Munier is a professor at St. Patrick's seminary in Menlo and acted as the American representative on labor in occupied Germany.

News of the two meetings was forthcoming today in a communcation directed to The Record from Mrs. Marchbanks.

Harry's Pastry Shop Undergoing Remodeling Job

Taking off his apron Monday, Harry, the "happy baker," will supervise the complete remodeling of his Pastry Shop, 7388 Mission.

The shop will be closed for two weeks, from August 14 to August 28.

While the ovens are cooling off, Harry will be working up steam putting in complete new fixtures and bakery equipment.

The finished product will be an up-to-date, modern bakery, second to none in the greater Daly City area. The specific changes Harry is keeping a secret until the grand reopening. However, he promises that when he's done, the delicious cakes and pies flowing from his bakery will be even better (if that

Defense Council Scheduled For Reorganization Soon

Reorganization of Daly City's World War II defense council appeared imminent today as the city council prepared plans for "any" eventuality.

It is expected that at the regular council meeting Monday night, the whole problem of Daly City's defense measures will be discussed.

In all probability the new defense council will be patterned after the organization so ably directed by the mayor and A. J. Bodien during the last war.

Detailed plans for the organization were set up in a special ordinance passed by the city council as early as March 31, 1949.

Briefly, the council will consist of the mayor as chairman, chiefs of divisions and leaders from all facets of civic life.

Purpose of the group, as outlined in the ordinance is to:

"Develop plans for any disaster. Such plans shall provide for the effective mobilization of all the resources of the community, both public and private."

Earlier last month, all firemen, police and city employees were sent questionnaires asking for their assistance in the council. At some later date, civic leaders in the community also will be "enlisted" in the group.

There are four separate units in the defense council. The first, under the supervision of Police Chief W. W. Sunderland, will be in charge of law and order in case of emergency. The body of this group will be made up of city policemen.

The second unit will be the fire division under the supervision of Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy. Men of the fire department will be prepared to counteract the effects of possible bombing, or other disaster.

Under the direction of A. J. Bodien, the utilities division will be prepared to make any repairs on needed public utilities.

The fourth, and last group, will be made up of volunteers to assist in any way the chairman of the defense council may deem necessary. As yet, no one has been named to head this division.

Meanwhile, the San Mateo County Red Cross is augmenting its plans to prepare for possible tides of refugees from San Francisco, should that city be attacked.

All elementary and high school buildings in the area, the Cow Palace, the Fiesta building in San Mateo, Tanforan and Bay Meadows race track buildings would be used as temporary quarters for fleeing San Franciscans.

Disaster preparedness plans call for establishment of separate disaster units in each of the 19 communities served by the Red Cross chapter. Key personnel are to be appointed in each community, and volunteers will be asked to serve on the various disaster preparedness committees.

Three Injured In Weekend Wrecks

Three San Francisco residents suffered minor injuries in two accidents here over the week end, police reports indicated today.

John Dickow, 22, 2075 Forty-second, suffered a cut ankle when the motorcycle he was riding was struck by a car driven by Herbert A. Frost, 36, 16 W. Cavour, Sunday afternoon.

Frost was driving north on Junipero Serra when he assertedly collided with the rear end of Dickow's cycle at the intersection of School street, police said. The motorcycle will need a new rear wheel.

Injured in a cab accident at 2 a.m. Sunday were Betty Horston, 28, and V. L. Lawson, 27, both of 347 San Carlos, San Francisco. Both were taken to Junipero Serra hospital where they were treated for minor cuts and bruises, hospital authorities report.

The couple were in the back seat of a Yellow Cab that collided with a car driven by Harry McDonough Jr., 35, 49 Miguel street, San Francisco, on Mission in the 6800 block. Driver of the cab was Stanley Savitski, 39, 441 Madrid.

Employment On Upswing Throughout S M County

A new San Mateo manufacturing plant is expected to employ from 300 to 500 employees within the next few weeks, it was revealed today.

The factory will turn out "dialaphones," a telephone dialing device, at its plant at 315 Eighth avenue, San Mateo, James Kilburg, president of the firm, said.

The corporation is waiting for the go-ahead from the State Public Utilities Commission before manufacturing will begin.

Meanwhile, the South San Francisco office of the California State department of employment reports a sudden demand and increase in employment in this area.

Niels Pedersen, manager of the office, said the demand is principally for male workers in the skilled, semi-skilled, and even unskilled categories.

However, before hiring a man, most employers wish to know his draft status.

In keeping with the rise in employment, unemployment checks hit a new low last month, Pedersen, said. He said claims for unemployment have been reduced 100 per cent.

Pedersen urged all persons who are in the ranks of the unemployed to contact the local employment office at 215 Linden avenue, South San Francisco.

Blood Bank One Of Many Agencies Assisted By Chest

With Daly City's Community Chest drive slated for October 1, chest officials this week give readers a first hand coverage of one of the many agencies assisted by your contributions.

This week Mrs. June Dutton reports on the San Mateo County Blood Bank:

If, at a moment's notice, you or some member of your family should need a blood transfusion you could have it. That gives you a secure feeling, doesn't it — like money in the bank perhaps? Only in this case it's valuable blood and blood plasma in the bank — in the San Mateo County Blood Bank where between 400 and 500 pints of blood are being deposited each month.

During its eight years of existence as of April 1950, the Blood Bank has drawn 27,235 pints of blood from 31,489 donors. Of these "depositors," 432 belong to the gallon club, seven to the two gallon club, and two persons have donated three gallons. Of course, the military hospitals during the war took thousands of pints of this blood without charge, and it was then that the Blood Bank turned to the Community Chest for financial aid.

All the Bank asks of a patient who receives a pint of blood is a $7.50 service charge to cover the expense of drawing the blood, plus the donation of a pint of blood Military personnel being exempt from these obligations necessitated the Bank's asking for outside help.

In normal times this service charge goes a long way toward covering Bank operating costs, even though this figure seems unbelievably low. In contrast, the pre-war general charge for blood transfusions was from $35 to $50. Mrs. Paul Hanzlik, executive secretary and treasurer and other Bank workers attribute this low $7.50 figure to their "centralization and standardization of laboratory equipment and procedure and accessibility of classification of records, plus the fact that blood donorship is wholly voluntary."

After a pint of blood is donated the whole blood is held for local use during a period not exceeding 10 days. Blood is also stored in the hospitals throughout the country. All blood remaining at the Bank after ten days is then pooled and preserved as dried or frozen plasma, which is also stored in strategic places in the country.

Civic Leaders Back School Program

Garden Village site, will serve pupils east of Junipero Serra.

With the completion of the 64 classrooms, barring a tremendous upswing population ways, the double session should be a thing of the past in the Daly City area.

The proposed projects are as follows:

No. 1: Woodrow Wilson site — playground development and multi-use facilities, plus additional land. Maximum cost $119,536.

No. 2: Garden Village site — playground development plus six classrooms, one library, one special classroom, one kindergarten, toilets, multi-use facilities, stage, teachers dining room, kitchen, storage, and utility. Maximum cost $241,407.

No. 3: Garden Village Upper Grade — playground development, additional land, plus 18 classrooms, two home economics rooms, one shop, one music room, one library, administration, storage, toilets, utility, multi-use facilities, stage, kitchen, teachers' dining room, storage. Maximum cost for land and building $834,797.

Nos. 4 and 5: Market St. (Colma) Primary and Upper Grade Schools — playground development and additional site plus two separate schools with following facilities.

Upper Grade — 13 classrooms, two home economics rooms, one shop, one library, one music room, administration, storage, toilets, and multi-use facilities (for both schools) stage, storage, utility, kitchen, teachers' dining room.

Primary — 10 classrooms, one library, two kindergartens, toilets, storage and utility.

Maximum cost including site $992,664.

No. 6: Westlake School (Kindergarten - sixth) — playground development, plus site and (additional two acres) plus 12 classrooms, one library, one special classroom, two kindergartens, administration, toilets, storage, utility and multi-use facilities, stage, kitchen, teachers' dining room. Maximum cost $626,184.

The total maximum cost of the six projects is expected to be $3,109,588.

Of this sum, residents of this area will borrow on a "pay-back-as-you-can" basis $2,814,588 from the state. The other $295,000 will be from local bonds.

As the tax rate for schools can not exceed 40 cents, at no time will the average taxpayer be paying more than $4 a year more for new schools.

It is expected that very little of the state loan will be paid back in the 30-year grace period. After the 30 years the loan is automatically wiped out. Therefore, as Snell explained it to the civic leaders, the $2,814,588 is actually a state grant, which is awaiting to be had, if the voters will approve taking same September 29.

Completing his explanation of the proposed school program, Snell received the backing of the 30 leaders present at a special meeting Wednesday night.

The men and women pledged their complete support to the program, and will work over the next two months to see that every citizen of the district is informed of the necessity of voting "Yes" on the school bond election September 29.

Appointed to an over-all steering committee for the election were: Marie Sorensen, M. Pauline Brown, Tom Jenkins, Dr. J. C. Doyle and M. Dagman. Each of these people represents an area of the Jefferson elementary school district.

Within the next few days they are expected to name a chairman for their organization.

Other group leaders appointed include: Publicity and Advertising: Mrs. Jane Keith, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Meitz; Finance, Pete Marcovich, chairman, assisted by Joe Lewkowitz; Speaker, Lyle Ingersoll, chairman, assisted by Charles Becker and Walter Rector.

House-to-house Canvass: Ann Eason, chairman, assisted by Sue Adami and presidents, as well as members of all the PTAs; Sponsor List: Walter Rector, chairman, assisted by Pete Marcovich; Printing: Marie Sorensen, assisted by Tom Jenkins.

heavens. Remove the minority, and you have slain the democratic system.

And while it is true the communists are the minority, they lost the rights of the minority when they dropped "loyal" as a prefix to opposition.

A new twist to an old story was forthcoming this week from the Daly City Auto Supply store, 6198 Mission street.

Monday evening the manager padlocked the door and went home sure the store was safe and sound.

Tuesday morning Bennett returned to find his establishment not only in tact, but a double safety on his door. Some "kind-hearted" soul during the night had placed a second lock over the first padlock. Applying a hacksaw, Bennett, after many minutes, managed to break into his own store.

P.S. — Bennett was NOT booked by police.

During the week of shortages and rising food costs we've noticed that hog trucks, carrying tons of bread, still continue their daily trips to the ranches around Colma. We don't wish to deny the hogs their bread, but how come some people can't afford the staff of life when thousands of day-old loaves are tossed to swine each day?

A week or so ago we noted that the youngsters are doing more and more reading these days. This week, the Daly City Library reported that the number of younger readers is up almost 50 per cent over a year ago, to a new July high of 1,179.

However, their more harried parents seem to have less and less time for reading, with the average number of readers for July at 3,359. This represents a rise of exactly 101 more literate adults over one year ago . . . an appalling percentage as compared with their children.

While bartenders report their business is booming in the wake of the Korean war, pastors of our local churches note that attendance at Sunday services is way down. There appears to be a lot of people down on their knees Saturday night, but working off a hangover in bed Sunday morning.

Vet's Widow Rights Explained

A new booklet, containing full information about the State of California's program of educational assistance to the widows and children of veterans whose death was due to war service, is now available at the Veterans Service Office, Courthouse, Redwood City, it is announced by Floyd D. Granger, veterans service officer.

It is published by the State Department of Veterans Affairs.

Under the State's program, which has been in effect since 1931, an eligible child or widow of a deceased veteran may receive $20 a month while attending high school or $40 while in school above the high school level. Widows may receive this assistance for as much as four year; children may continue to receive it as long as they are enrolled in school or until they reach their 27th birthday, whichever occurs first.

The dependent must have lived in California for five years immediately preceding the date of application, although the deceased veteran himself need never have been a resident of this state.

Granger said the booklet contains a full description of how the program is carried out, and the stepss which the applicant for this State benefit should take. A sample of the Veterans Administration Letter of Award, which is the preferred type of evidence that the veteran's death was due to his war service, is included.

Application forms and additional information are available from the Veterans Service Office, Courthouse, Redwood City.

They must not be left to DRIFT!
You would not think of putting children like these in an open boat, without rudder or oars, and letting them drift wherever wind and wave chose to carry them.
No, you're not that kind of a parent!
But let's look at life as your children will face it. Life is an open sea upon which today's young people must embark. The winds often will be strong and the waves will be high. Their voyage will be far safer if the rudder and oars of proper spiritual training have been given them.
Fifteen million boys and girls are growing up in homes that pay no attention to and have no part in the Church or in religious education. These children are drifting!
The Church makes life safer for young and old alike. It provides a program designed to serve humanity in countless ways. The truths it teaches are basic and everlasting. Can you afford not to be a part of it?
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Open Air Art Show Slated For SF Sept. 28

San Francisco's popular open air art show has out-grown Union Square in the heart of the city and this will be held at the California Palace of Fine Arts in the Marina September 28 through October 1.

The show will be called the San Francisco Art Festival and, according to present plans, will be judged by three out-of-state artists who will award three $1,000 prizes, three $250 prizes and three $100 prizes. Moving the show from Union Square to the Palace of Fine Arts will save $4,050 and this money is to be used for prizes, a move which the Art Commission expects will increase participation in the event. The works thus purchased by the city would be displayed as a municipal show.

Although the plan has been approved by the Art Commission, it still requires a green light from the Board of Supervisors before any of the $10,000 appropriated for the show can be used for purchase of prizes.

Eagles Honor Davison And Note State Anniversary

Honored guest at the Thursday evening meeting of the Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848 FOE was Frank Davison, junior past worthy president.

A large number of Eagles turned out to pay respects to Davison in recognition of his work for the Order during the past few years.

The occasion also was to celebrate the 47th anniversary of the founding of the California State Aerie.

Present to commemorate the event was James F. Cheetham, the founder of the State Aerie and the oldest active Eagle in the United States. He gave an interesting speech regarding the founding of the California State Aerie which he instituted forty-seven years ago. He also related amusing incidents of his trip to Hawaii in 1901 when he installed the Honolulu Eagles Aerie. Dr. J. J. Crowley, one of the oldest past presidents of San Francisco Aerie No. 5, introduced Mr. Cheetham.

A gift was presented to Mr. Davison on behalf of Colma - Vista Grande Aerie by Arthur J. Bodien, a past president. William P. Bolger, former secretary and also a past president, was called on for a short talk.

Several visiting Eagles from nearby Aeries were in attendance, including the drill team of San Francisco Aerie No. 5 which escorted Messrs. Cheetham and Crowley into the meeting, and also acted as escort to the class of candidates during the formal initiation rites. The new candidates were welcomed into the Order by Worthy President Calvert.

After the conclusion of the meeting, hot turkey pies, salad and coffee were served by the entertainment committee consisting of Messrs. Ernest Romer, Robert Hacker, and Thomas Quickert.

BAYSHORE VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUniper 4-6449

Rumor is rife, and speculation is high. There is a whisper in the wind that the Government is seriously considering taking over the Cow Palace again. If this is so, we will have service men back in our valley in big bunches . . . in uniform, that is.

There has been no definite notification to the state as yet. One of the officials of the Cow Palace said that he feels that even if Uncle Sam takes over again, they will allow the state to run the 1950 Grand National. The circus has been postponed, but no other action has been taken, so everyone is holding his breath.

The state officials have worked long and hard, with many a setback, to build the Cow Palace up to where it would really pay. Every big promotion in this section of the country has been gone after by these fellows, and we can only hope that if the state must give up again, they won't have the tremendous job to do over again.

Water Board Meets

At a recent meeting of the water board, a letter from E. H. Megel was read, tendering his resignation as clerk of the board. E. H. has decided to move down the Peninsula a ways, so he is giving up this work, feeling he won't be close enough to handle the job efficiently. J. Lawson, V. Morris, and L. Parker, present members of the board, expressed the deepest regret over Mr. Megel's resignation. From all angles, he's done an A-1 job. Being a CPA, he has been a definite asset to the district.

Mrs. Nellie Throne was voted in as clerk of the board, and we can only wish her good luck, and hope that her headaches will be few. All complaints referred to Mrs. Throne. Take it from there, Nellie.

The G. Buttler's had company for the week. Pearl's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams, Mrs. Williams' sister, a niece and girl friend, dropped in from Nampa, Idaho, for a short stay.

Dominic and Ralph Caloiaro, husband and son of Mary Caloiaro, left the first of August for a month's vacation in Rutland, Massachusetts, to visit Dominic's mother. If you have any belated spring cleaning to do Mary, now is the time.

Newcomers

New Neighbors: The J. Christof family are newcomers, at 998 Schwerin street. There are five of them, Dad, Mom, and three children. Our population increases in leaps and bounds.

The E. Smiths bought the T. Yaley home, at 255 Rio Verde, but in this case, the Smiths are not among strangers. Mrs. Dunn, of 256 Rio Verde, is Mrs. Smith's sister, so it's all in the family.

A newcomer in the Haney family is hailed with joy. Eleven girls born to the family, and now, at long last, a boy. Mr. and Mrs. James Allen are mama and papa. Mrs. Allen is the daughter of Mrs. Pearl Haney, of 65 Pueblo.

The Bayshore Campfire Girls took in the Ice Follies as a group, last Wednesday evening, and reported swell, super, wonderful, etc. Ten of our girls went on the outing.

Dresden Shop

The new Dresden shop that was opened by Mrs. Young and Mrs. Salsbery last week is reported a major success. We throw this in for no other reason than it is a swell thing to see people starting a venture, and having it exceed their fondest dreams. People are signing up with them, and rapidly filling their art classess. For those of you still not in the know, drop down to Leland avenue and brouse around the shop.

Mr. Baker, dad of Mrs. Pearl Haney, returned from a two-week vacation at Oakley, California. Mr. Baker is seventy-seven, but still takes his vacations seriously.

The little Miner Diner, at Rio Verde street and Geneva avenue, had a spot of unlooked-for excitement last week. A 250-pound, 28-year-old truck driver went on a rampage, entering the Little Miner Restaurant, and with no build-up, attacked a customer at the counter. Other patrons, seeing the attack, attempted to stop the disturbance. A window was broken in the ensuing set to, and then the battle moved to the great outdoors.

Outside, he tore off an exhaust pipe and began hammering at parked cars. Highway Patrolmen Roy Edwards and Henry Edwards finally cornered him, and hurried him off to the bastille. He was released on $1500 bail.

William Rovegno, 25, of 3124 Bayshore avenue, was treated at Mission emergency for a severed tendon on his right hand, and various lacerations and bruises.

Guests at the recent fire board meeting were Mr. Kurttschmidt and Mr. Jerome, representatives of Southern Pacific Railroad. The two men took part in a discussion on fire protection on Southern Pacific property.

Softball Champs To Meet All Stars

By Milton Tromborg

It could be done, and it's going to be done.

That's right, the winner of the Daly City Recreation Softball League is going to play a team of 10 picked players from the other seven teams in the league.

Things could come to an end in two short weeks, but the way things are working out, there might be a playoff. Four teams are fighting for undisputed first place, but as of late, the top teams are getting knocked off left and right, from teams that lost two and three already.

As soon as the league is officially over, and the winner crowned, steps will be taken to make the all-star team up.

Here is how it will work. To two men who are responsible for starting the league, Orlich and Johnson, and this writer, will put their heads together and pick 10 players to oppose the league champs.

Eleven players will be picked, five infielders, three outfielders, two pitchers, and a manager.

The pitcher will be picked not only by their won and lost records in the league, but by their pitching ability.

The other players will be not picked alone by their hitting, for some are good hitters, but weak in fielding.

The game will be played on the big diamond at Jefferson High school. Keep reading this paper for full results and starting line-ups of the game. If possible, try to see the game yourself.

YOUR DALY CITY GARDEN CLUB NEWS

By ELSIE M. GARRISON

If there were ever two alibis that get well worn in this part of the country in regards to accomplishment in the garden they are (1) the fog (2) the fog and, of course, (3) the ear-wigs and pests. Personally I have found them (the alibis) useful at times, but never saw a gardener who had no problem with either.

However, one evening last week, at the home of the Irving A. Kramers, on Acton street, I saw the visual proof that (1) the fog is an asset which makes possible growth of the most beautiful and rare begonias and (2) ear-wigs can be eradicated with regular use of chlordane. Although this was a tame approach to the major reaction of seeing the most cleverly transformed backyard I have ever seen, and a most lavish display of begonias of all types, I had the urge to bring all of Daly City in to see it and say "It can be done, see?"

The Kramer garden was so unbelievably beautiful that it took some time to digest the details of its structure. Carefully patterned in a modified tropical style were three units which surrounded the lawn and pathway. The first unit, which opened off the basement-recreation area, was a lanai. Its floor space, of concrete, was large enough to accommodate a chaise and several arm-chairs. The corner area, faced with rough redwood bark at both angles, set off the lovliest waterfall and fern collection I have ever seen, which was man-made. Aralia, and large type tropical plants, formed a high silhouette.

Not the least of this attraction, were the frogs in the pool, who rendered the sound effects of natural habitat — even they were fooled!

Overhead, protecting the entire area, was an interesting effect, which at first glance appeared to be structural glass, but upon inquiry, was divulged to be discarded fluorescent tubes, set into a redwood frame. Being a practical soul, I was delighted at such an ingenious idea, but more so by the fact of its practicality and low cost.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Before employing fluorescent tubes be certain they are beyond the reach of a child. The gas in the tubes and the residue on broken tubes are EXTREMELY dangerous to children and adults alike.)

The next unit was built as "open faced" lath house, againsst the house, and here the hanging baskets of begonias were predominant, with rows of shelves holding many potted begonias of various colors and types. This sea of gorgeous bloom was lighted in an artful fashion so as to bring out the natural color, as was the waterfall and fernery.

Continuing at right angles around the grass lawn, and opposite the lanai, was the same type lath house arrangement, which displayed even more begonias, or rare speciments. Clematis, vines, philodendron and varigated ivy climbed the supports and beautified the entire place, as did the quaint fixtures, and landscaping devices.

Continuing out of their yard which included an efficient workshop, we proceeded into the adjoining neighbor's yard on the same pathway. Here was another separate lath house, incorporating the use of the fluorescent tubes as a background, and the roof frame being covered with aluminum (surplus) sheets. The design, in a V shape, formed a considerable protection fo rthe garden furniture suite, as well as an attractive setting for more lovely begonias.

Members of the Daly City Garden Club were entranced with the Kramer garden and after a preview retired to the recreation area, where the monthly meeting was called to order by the president, Aimee Bunkley. After a brief session the meeting was turned over to the speaker and host of the evening, Irving Kramer.

In his talk Mr. Kramer disclosed that this area is most ideal for raising begonias, second only to the Santa Cruz coastal area where the famous Reinholt and Antonelli nurseries are located. This formula for success with begonias is very ssimple, and he assured us that there is no mystery about raising these gorgeous plants. Rather, he placed emphasis on the timing, and soil and watering.

Daly City soil, and leaf mould in equal part with an additional one-quarter of cow manure, will provide an ideal mixture in which to fill pots. A pinch of fish meal is recommended for plant food. Mr. Kramer cautioned that the plants be kept moist, and be staked up as foliage begins to grow. When the blooming period is over, the water is withheld and the tuber allowed to dry off completely. From December until May such tubers should be kept in a dark place, and then put in flats for transplanting.

In his pleasant and straightforward talk it sounded very easy indeed, and I do believe it is. Mr. Kramer has a perspective we would all do well to strive for. This project was not achieved overnight, but required patient and consistent effort, with an all-over pattern in mind. Mr. Kramer sums up his entire endeavor as using his hobby to create an "outdoor living room," and that it exactly what it is. He has spent no more time or money o nit than a lot of people do their "inside" living rooms. Here he can entertain or spend leisure hours. A green lawn for a carpet, amidst nature's murals, leaves little to be desired in the way of ornamentation.

At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Kramer, assisted by his charming and hospitable wife, and daughter Lois, showed slides taken in color of all the begonia varieties, and many specimens of his own hybridizing. It was an altogether enjoyable evening, which will not be forgotten by the members of the Daly City Garden Club.

We feel that Mr. Kramer has earned our gratitude, in furthering local interest in flowers, specifically the begonia. Mr. Kramer's garden has appeared in the Sunset Magazine, as well as in the San Francisco dailies, and puts Daly City squarely on the map as a city that is striving for beauty, both on our streets and private gardens. So no more excuses about the fog—or the pests. It seems that they can be beat, after all.

DALY CITY PLAYGROUND ACTIVITIES

CROCKER PLAYGROUND

By Regina S. Warchot

Last week the Crocker Playground was busy working on floats and decorating wagons, bicycles, coasters and all vehicles for the city-wide vehicle day. Our float which had a football theme was built by Buddy Francis and painted by Frank Bricker.

Ronald Bell helped decorate it and pulled our float in the parade. John Biani won a prize for his float with Crocker's mascot theme. He had a bear, Crocker's baseball team mascot, in a tire. Little Mr. Crocker was Junior Dyker who sat on a float his sisters, Mary and Susan Dyker, made for him. Larry Pottinger, Ronald Walsh, Gerry Smith, Karen Savage, and Sandra Holliday won prizes for the best decorated bicycles. Fred Hooke won first prize for the scooter and Dave Charles won first prize for the coaster.

Saturday, everyone over 10 went to the Seals baseball game and we enjoyed watching a thrilling game.

This week, Crocker will have vehicle races for little children who have tricycles or wagons or anything. Thursday morning we will hold the ping-pong tournament at our playground. Thursday afternoon will be "Bring a Friend Day" at Crocker playground.

Next week will be filled with outings again—the Bay Excursion, and the Swim Party, all in one week! So I'll see you there and at the Crocker Playground.

LINCOLN PLAYGROUND

By Bucky Linhares

On Wednesday and Thursday of last week, Lincoln Playground had both eliminations and practice for the Baseball Accuracy Throw at Marchbanks Park. Friday, the day of the contest, Lincoln was represented by Jeane Laskey and Jo Ann Gould, who took first places in the Girls "A" and "B" divisions respectively. Gene Lorenzo, Wesley Yates and Bobby Rich represented the boys, taking a first, second, and a third, respectively.

Dick Evans, Bill Evans and Darrel Hutchinson entered the Bicycle Races on Vehicle Day which as at 10 a.m. last Firday. They raced for Lincoln Park in 10 events taking four firsts, two second, two thirds and two fourths.

This week the Lincolnites will journey down to the High School to participate in the Table Tennis Tournament. Ray Smitche, Darrel Hutchinson, Angelo Casini and Jeane Laskey seem the most likely to compete for Lincoln.

Next week, on August 16, the seagoing members of our park will make a San Francisco Bay Excursion. Anchors will be away at 11 a.m. This same week on Friday, August 18, a Swim Party will be held at the High School Pool at 10 a.m.

CRAFT CENTERS

By James Kraywinkel

This last week the small children made rocking horses. They were cut from paper and then the children colored them. In most cases these turned out very well. Wednesday the children did spatter painting and made hand prints in plaster of paris. The spatter painting didn't turn out too well this time, but we will have more before the end of the summer. The hand prints came out very well. The prints were left for a day and then the area around the print was painted; now all that is left to do is shellac them and put a ruffle on it. The children like to do this and are proud of the plaque when it is finished.

The airplane modeling class has had some new members, but we would like to have some more boys 10 years or over come out.

We have leather for purses, holsters, etc. now and some very nice things have been made from it.

Next week there will be clown hats, turtles, statues and the finishing of the hand prints to keep the children busy. We have a new supply of cork in now so if any of you children would like to do work with it, come on out Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 1 at Parkview and Tuesday and Thursday at Peoria Craft Center.

LITTLE JEFF PLAYGROUND

By B. Clement

Jose Ordonez, Albie Figone and Ario Gregori were the winners of the Boys C, B, and A Division softball throw for accuracy.

Saturday we went to Seals Stadium to see the Seals vs. Padres game. The Seals lost 7-5 but with so many hits and errors it was a thrilling contest to watch.

Wednesday we are going to see "Treasure Island" at the Golden Gate.

JEFFERSON HIGH

By Mary Falbo

Saturday, August 4, we went to Seal Stadium. The kids left the grounds at 11 o'clock and journeyed by bus to Seal Stadium to see San Diego trounce the Seals.

Activities in Playroom

We plan to add clay work to our activities. The children will make some puppets and some time this summer we will give an evening performance.

Outing

Wednesday, August 9, we are going to see Walt Disney's "Treasure Island." Most of our boys are very eager to attend.

Game room is open every evening from 7 to 9. Ping-pong, pool, and other games are available.

Joe Sarto Represents Republicans At Meet

Representing this district at the recent Republican party convention in Sacramento was Joseph Sarto, manager of the Villa Sanitarium.

Sarto spent the week end at the convention as a delegate for State Senator Harry L. Parkman.

He reports the meeting was unruffled, and a party platform was decided without too much difficulty.

Marin Begonia Show Set Saturday

Marin county's seventh annual begonia flower show will be held this Saturday, August 12, from 3 p.m. to 10 p.m. at Fourth and B streets, San Rafael.

Exhibit classes have been arranged so that amateur growers, both large and small, will be attracted and encouraged to exhibit their blooms.

Professional growers are invited to display their blooms in a non-competitive capacity to be entered as complimentary exhibits.

Ribbons will be awarded only for Marin county grown begonias. Amateur contributors from outside the county will receive exhibitor ribbons.

All blooms and plants exhibited should be personally grown by the exhibitor.

Further information may be obtained at the San Rafael First National Bank, Fourth and B streets.

Court St. Mary Marks Anniversary

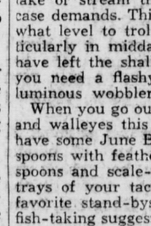
ANGLING ANGLES

by old Hi



A reader from New Jersey writes: "I expect to spend some weekends at the seashore this summer, and would like to catch a few salt water fish. I have a nine-foot, six-ounce bass fly rod, automatic reel, and 25 yards of size E level nylon line. Would this outfit be suitable for taking any of the ocean fish?"

By all means. You have just the right rig for catching various inshore roving species on flies and spinners. This is being verified to a greater extent every season, as more anglers on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts use fly rods for salt water fishing.

You'll find that weakfish, mackerel, flounders, shad, striped bass, bluefish, salmon, pompano, bonefish and snook are among those that strike flies and spinners. The sport they furnish on the light rod will thrill you to the core, and sharply test your skill.

In the Chesapeake Bay region, for instance, you can take striped bass on a yellow streamer fly in combination with a nickel spinner. The bass also like feather minnows and bright-colored floating bugs. In San Francisco Bay the stripers go for bright salmon flies — such as a Royal Coachman tied on a 3/0 size long-shank hook. You work this fly in shallow water as the tide rises, making a rapid retrieve in jerky fashion.

There is quite a bit of useful dope on taking ocean fish by fly rod tactics in Old Hi's booklets "Salt Water Sports Fishing" and the new "Pacific Coastal Fishing." You may have free copies by sending a post card to me in care of this newspaper. These illustrated books contain information on tackle, methods and lures to use in catching the large and small game fish along the American and Canadian coastlines.

During the warm water days of summer when the fish of lakes and deep rivers stay in the spring-fed depths, you can often improve your results by taking the temperature of the water, near bottom, with either a lake or stream thermometer as the case demands. This lets you know at what level to troll or still fish, particularly in midday when game fish have left the shallows. This is when you need a flashy spinning lure or luminous wobblers.

When you go out for northern pike and walleyes this season, be sure to have some June Bug spinners, fluted spoons with feathered hooks, striped spoons and scale-finish plugs in the trays of your tackle kit. These are favorite stand-bys. For many other fish-taking suggestions of this nature, ask for your free copy of Old Hi's fresh water booklet entitled "Fishing For The Millions." It contains many proven secrets for success.

Cereghino Hurls 2-Hit 5-0 Shut Out

Turning back to the semi-pro loop, Daly City's Ed Cereghino turned in a neat two-hit 5-0 shut-out last Friday night against Hirsch's Braves in one of the most thrilling ball games ever witnessed in the Funston Night league.

After suffering defeat in the Examiner All-Star game, Cereghino put everything he knew into his pitches and came out with a two-hit shut-out.

Of the 28 batters he faced, Big Ed struck out 14 of them, walking none. Hirsch Braves found little batting power, getting only two scrapers, a cheap double and a single. Not one Hirsch batter reached third base.

This win put Mike Chioino's nine in first place in the Funston night league with a 5 to 0 record. In thesse five wins, Cereghino has won three of them.

Cereghino helped his own cause by driving in two runs with a single in the fifth frame.

If Birds Quit Laying

Although a positive diagnosis of Newcastle disease can be made only by laboratory tests, there is plenty of reason to suspect this malady if egg production in a flock dips sharply—nearly to zero. A veterinary bulletin points out that a drastic drop in egg production, whether due to Newcastle disease or some other type of trouble, should be a warning for poultrymen to get a prompt diagnosis and start corrective measures at once. If the trouble is actually Newcastle disease, respiratory and nervous symptoms usually will be evident.

Radar and Storms

Radar was used during the war to "see" electrically the planes and ships of friends and foe in daylight, darkness or fog, far beyond the range of the human eye. With its radar a ship could navigate into a harbor in a pea-soup fog. Today scientists are using radar to map and study storms in a 200-mile circle around a weather station at Wilmington, Ohio.

Atomic Energy for Railroads

Atomic scientists tell us that the energy released by splitting the atom will be harnessed for use by the railroads. This may not become practical for another 50 years, but it is certain that atomic energy will be playing a vital role in the transportation of people and goods in 2048.

Merced Fishermen Make Big Haul

Trout catches in a rejuvenated water supply reservoir — located five miles from San Francisco's city hall — have California anglers and fisheries workers alike rubbing their eyes in disbelief.

From 400-acre Lake Merced, Bay area sportsmen have been hauling their two-a-day limit of trout with surprising regularity, reports the Division of Fish and Game. All the rainbows are a foot or more in length and weigh at least a pound.

Through continuous creel checks, State biologists learned that 1,064 fish were landed in a recent five-day period. No more than two trout were taken home by each angler.

Surprising to most happy fishermen is the bountiful trout supply in the lake — previously almost a total loss as a bass fishing ground. What surprises the Division fish biologists is the amazing growth of the fish they planted last winter.

Large numbers of minnows, carp, and other rough fish were taken from the lake last year after chemical treatment by the State agency. In January, the waters were stocked with a total of 70,000 rainbow trout averaging six and a half inches in length.

San Francisco's backyard bonanza began July 1, when the stand-by reservoir was opened to public fishing. In cooperation with the city government, the Division is emphasizing the recreational, rather than the meat-on-the-table aspects of Lake Merced fishing.

The Bureau of Fish Conservation states that the low daily bag limit was set because of the obvious impossibility of maintaining trout fishing for the horde of metropolitan area anglers. Two of the fat Merced rainbows should make a meal for five hungry people, the Bureau says.

The phenomina! growth of the fish from three ounces to a pound or more in a six-month period is attributed to the Lake's abundance of fresh water shrimp.

In cooperation with the Division of Fish and Game, the Federal government spends more than half a million dollars each year in California wildlife restoration from its proceeds of taxes on firearms and ammunition.

SOFTBALL LEAGUE

Daly City Hardware Suffers 1st Defeat; Blaze Busters Are Trounced By Colma

By Milton Tromborg

After winning five straight games, the Daly City Hardware failed in their sixth outing, as they were trounced by the Amazon A.C. 23-2 last Tuesday night.

Trying to go through the league without meeting defeat, Daly City Hardware were behind in score all through the game.

This was scheduled to be the pitchers duel of the league, with Underwood on the mound for the Hardware nine, and Abby for the Amazon nine, but as things turned out, it was quite a free hitting game. Abby gave up only seven scattered hits, but Underwood had to settle with 17 hits.

Amazon opened the game in the scoring department in the first frame. Caruso grounded out as Ingersoll and Lemos both walked. Cassilagio singled to left field, scoring Caruso from second, to give Amazon a 1-0 lead. Cassilagio again became the batting star in the third fourth fifth, and sixth innings. In the third, he doubled to drive in two runs, in the fourth, he doubled to drive in two runs, in the fifth he doubled to drive in two runs, and in the sixth he had to settle with a three-run homer. For his evening work, he hit a single, three doubles, and a home run.

Daly City' only two runs came in the third frame. Pitcher Underwood tripled, Chase struck out, as Caravandes singled Underwood across but was thrown out at second. Mosman singled to left, as Ray Caravandes forced Mosman to second. Fox came through with a hot lining single to center, scoring Mosman on the play.

Up to the third inning, the score stood 4-2, with Amazon out in front. Amazon tallied three runs in the fourth, four in the fifth, four in the sixth, and seven in the seventh.

In the seventh frame, Abby of Amazon A.C. hit a 400-foot four-run homer. In the third inning, Ryan hit a three-run homer.

NANNINI WINS

Supplying hits and runs, Colma fire fighters gave their pitcher, Lou Nannini, plenty of backing as he pitched a seven-hit, 19-2 win over the Daly City Fire Department. This setback ran Daly City's losing streak to five straight.

Colma started the fire going in the opening inning with two hits and four runs. Masini and Giusti both got on base on errors. Larry Nannini singled to drive in two runs, as eBarlol singled to bring Nannini around to the plate. Bearlol scored on a nerror.

Errors proved to be thedownfall of Daly City as they hit the high mark with 16 to their credit. Holding a 15-0 lead in the fifth frame, Bearlol hit a two-run homer to run the score to 17-0.

Daly City's only two markers came in the fifth frame on three hits. Martini singled to left, as did Kusber. Kusber reached second on an error and Martini scored on the same error. Colman's single with two outs scored the other lone tally.

As was stated in last week's paper, Franzoia's shifting of the Colma team proved to be the deciding factor in the last two games.

Roy Giusti made the play of the night as he threw a runner out at the plate from center field. Bearlol was the leading hitter of the night, getting three singles and a home run.

D. C. HARDWARE UPSETS LYNCH'S

Hurling five straight innings without giving up a hit or a run, Pitcher Underwood of the Daly City Hardware did enough damage to set back Phil Lynch's nine 10-2, in one of the most surprising upsets of the league.

Phil Lynch's could not come through with a hit until the sixth frame, then scoring two runs off four hits and a pair of walks.

Up to that time, Underwood had everything his way.

On the mound for Phil Lynch's was Lair, who did a pretty good job considering that he had no team backing whatsoever.

In the fourth frame, Lair had to leave the game after being hit by a line drive. After going to the hospital, Lair came back with a broken finger. Orlich took over on the mound and did a fairly good deed on he mound also.

Missing in the game was Phil Lynch's star third baseman and leading hitter, Dick Wilson, and Glenn South.

All eyes will be on the game between Mid City and Daly City Hardware which will be played August 10. If the Hardware nine wins, they will take the championship without question, but if they lose, it will put the league in a five-way tie, if the Amazon A.C. loses also.

Remember, if anyone is interested in joining a Sunday morning league, get in touch with the Daly City Recreation department. This league will not start before September 1.

Marie's Place Chalks Up Another Win

By Angelo Craviotto

Marie's Place won its fifth out of six Sunday under the one-hit pitching of Al Canepa by a score of 9-0.

The one hit came in the second inning and from then on Tibourn's bats were silenced. Only three balls were hit to the outfield. It was surprising to see this once powerful team trampled upon, but on the other hand Marie's Place boasts five .400 hitters. That may be the reason for the difficult time the opposing pitchers are having to retire Marie's Place.

Again this Sunday they collected 13 hits. Two runs were scored in the third, two more in the fourth, and the final tallies in the fifth five more runs.

Canepa leads the pitching staff with three wins, Donley two and so far Allain is the black sheep with the only deficit. Gene Lorenzo tops the batters with a .465 average, Donley .445, Delfino .409, Leveroni .409, and Craviotto .400

Al Davis this week looks upon Charlie Donley to continue the great job his pitchers are doing.

Until next week I'll see you at 6005 Mission street.

Visalia Deer Hunt Rules Revealed

California hunters who want a crack at one of the 800 deer to be removed from the former Mineral King National Refuge have just been issued the Fish and Game Commission rules which will govern the lottery hunt.

Licensed hunters must mail applications to the Commission's temporary field headquarters at Visalia, bearing a postmark not earlier than August 24. The drawing to select 960 eligibles will be held at Visalia in the afternoon of August 28.

Application forms will be available at Division of Fish and Game offices and license agencies. A valid 1950-51 hunting license must be submited with each mail application, together with the $1 fee.

The special hunting season was set between September 16 and October 15 after local sportsmen, landowners, and State and National agencies agreed the refuge was overpopulated with deer. No more than 800 deer of both sexes will be removed this year to allow the overbrowsed range to recover.

During eight periods of three and four days each, up to 120 hunters may shoot one buck or one doe. Checking stations will be maintained in the area during the 30-day season.

As each hunter's application is received at the Visalia license office, it will be serially numbered, and a numbered token corresponding to the application number dropped in a selection cage. One token will be drawn, and the 959 consecutive numbers following the selected number will be the season's eligible hunters.

Friends who wish to hunt together may mail their applications in one envelope. Their individual applications will be given consecutive serial numbers, assuring their chances of hunting together in the same period, if such numbers are among those chosen. No more than two hunters may mail applications in one envelope.

Holy Angels Church Bazaar Scheduled For September 30; Many Awards Offered

This year's annual Colma Bazaar will be held September 30 to October 1, it was announced today.

The bazaar, sponsored by members of the Holy Angels Church parish, is to raise money for the benefit of the parish.

Colombo Hall, San Pedro road, will be the scene of this year's bazaar.

Plans for the event were discussed at a chairmen meeting Tuesday evening. At that time Armando Gugliemino was appointed chairman, while George Desperati was chosen as co-chairman.

The committee discussed the various boths ando prizes to be offered at the bazaar. Further details will be found in next week's Record, after a second meeting of the committee August 15 at 8:15 p.m. in the parish hall.

Anyone interested in assisting with the bazaar is asked to be present at next Tuesday's meeting.

Hogmen Wade Through Lincoln

The Colma Hogmen won again this week, but their win was well earned and not a run-away like the game they played last week.

Don Wilson, losing pitcher from Lincoln Playground, pitched a five-hit game while Vic Drago gave up seven hits to the losers. The game ended 5-2.

Next Monday night the teenagers from all of the playground teams will get together to form an all-star team. These Monday night games are just another one of the various programs offered this summer by the Daly City Recreation Department. You do not have to be a participant to enjoy the game, come down to the High School Monday night and watch the game.

The following boys are to meet at the High School Monday night to play the Hogmen: J. Fischer, D. Wilson, G. Lorenzo, Murchison, L. Hutchinson and Cummings from Lincoln Playground. Kline, Maynard, Delfino, Caserza and L. Raggio from Colma Boys Club. Robinson, Cavarata and Allain from Marchbanks Park.

Whitey Mecham Pitches No Hit Game For Ralph's

Pitching a no-hit game Tuesday night, Whitey Mecham led Ralph's cleaners to a 9-to-1 victory over Welte's in the South San Francisco softball league.

The only run for the Welte's boys came in the fifth, when Ralph's third baseman dropped a throw from the catcher and the scoring runner made home base.

The no-hit game was the first such fete recorded in the softball league this summer.

Also doing their share for Ralph's were John Lucier and Frank Reuggeir. Both getns whopped the horsehide far into the field for homers, scoring themselves and three other runners.

Ralph's wasn't so lucky last Thursday night, dropping a game to Herch and Price 5 to 3.

This week the boys have two games pending in the San Francisco league. Moth will be fought out at Rolph Field at 9 p.m. on Friday and Tuesday, respectively. The Tuesday game will be against Myra's Place, while Friday Ralph's meets Marchettei.

Four distinct climatic and plant life zones can be found within the Grand Canyon of the Colorado River in Grand Canyon National Park.

Sarto AC Upset Marty 11-1

Behind the pitching of Babe Ottonello, Sarto A.C. Sunday whipped Marty The Geary by the impressive score of 11 to 1.

Although Ottonello allowed six hits, the Marty boys rarely got past first base.

Star hitter of the day was Howard Heffron, who drove in a home run and brought in Don Lunghi for two runs.

Sarto's weren't so lucky, losing a game to Leslie Salt 13 to 5.

This Sunday, Sarto A.C. meets a still-to-be-identified team at Marchbanks Park at 2 p.m.

TOURNAMENT NEWS

Table Tennis Tournament Set August 9; Softball Throw Winners Announced

Last week a tournament was held at Marchbanks Park by the Daly City Recreation Department to determine the city championship in the softball throw for accuracy.

The following boys and girls were the winners in their respective divisions: Girls under 14 years, Joan Gould (L) 1st, Carol Glover (MB) 2nd, Karen Savage (C) 3rd, Arlene Drefus (LJ) 4th; Girls over 14 years of age, Jean Leskey (L) 1st.

Boys 11 and under, Ronald Bell (C) 1st, Bobby Rich (L) 2nd, Joey Ordonez (LJ) 3rd, Marcus Glover (MB) 4th; Boys 12-13 years, Bob Grubb (MB) 1st, Wesley Yates (L) 2nd, Herb Ayres (MB) 3rd, Al Figone (LJ) 4th; Boys 14 and over, Gene Lorenzo (L) 1st, John Robinson (MB) 2nd, Aria Gregoni (LJ) 3rd.

If the points are counted as they are in track, the following are the team standings for the above tournament: Lincoln Playground 21 points, Marchbanks Park 12 points, Little Jeff Playground 8 points, and Crocker Playground 7 points. Lincoln Playground is to be congratulated for their fine showing.

The boys and girls practiced all week and the results will show what it takes to win any of these tournaments, just one thing, practice.

Next week the High school will be the host to a table tennis (ping-pong) tournament. The same age grouping will be used as is indicated above. This tournament is not to be confused with the open tournament that will be held on August 9, this will be on Monday afternoon about 2:30 August 14.

This is the tournament you kids have been asking about and waiting for, so don't forget to be there Monday. There will be elimination tournaments on the individual playgrounds to determine those who will play in the City tournament. Ask your playground director for further information.

Next week there also will be a basketball shooting tournament. This is a lot of fun, but you will have to start practicing for it now, because it takes skill to make baskets. The idea of this tournament is to develop speed in making baskets. Each person will have one minute to see how many he can make.

Torpedoes Score Second Strike

Well, the High School Torpedoes did it again this week, they beat the Panthers 9-8 in a close game at Marchbanks Park.

The Panthers are getting closer every game so maybe they will beat the boys from the High School Playground the next time they play.

The following boys played for the High School: Plunket lf, Pancho 3b, Boghosian cf, Maynard c, Monson 1b, Palmor ss, Miller 2b, Diamond rf, and Noland p.

Madden 3b, Gonzales 2b, Waligore ss, Murphy c, Hutchinson cf, Baciocco 1b, Figone lf, Drafus cf, and Rosa p, were the boys who played the Panthers.

Noland gave up three hits while Rosa allowed seven hits. Monson was the "big stick" for the winners, getting a double and two singles.

Next week there will be an all-star game at Marchbanks Park for the Junior Leaguers. The all-stars will play the High School team in an all-out effort to upset the league leaders.

FISH AND GAME NOTES

by Jimmy Fox

Local anglers and hunters will be glad to hear that one of their favorite sports writers and radio personalities is back on the air after a six-month vacation.

Ed Neal of the S. F. News is once more bringing us his RAINBEAU lines program. His reports on angling and hunting conditions will be of great value to all sportsmen each week end. Also on each program he will have a guest speaker active in the conservation field. Last evening Charles McDermand, author of several books on High Sierra Fishing, and the Trout of the Sierras, had some very interesting remarks to say about this year's trout fishing. The program will be heard every Thursday at 9:15 p.m. on radio station KYA.

If you would drop Ed a line on a post card telling him what you think of the program he would appreciate it. The address is RainBeau Lines, c/o Ed Neal, Radio Station KYA, Fairmont Hotel, S.F.

The following resolution which originated in the Daly City Rod and Gun Club and was adopted by the District Council No. 7 group of the Associated Sportsmen of California has been presented to the San Francisco board of supervisors for their approval.

RESOLUTION

District Council No. 7
Associated Sportsmen of California

Whereas, the California Fish and Game Commission has cleared Lake Merced of rough fish and have restocked the lake with 70,000 trout of catchable size, and

Whereas, the moneys used by the Fish and Game Commission for this work in Lake Merced came from license fees and fines, and

Whereas, restrictions limiting fishing on week days to those who must rent boats from a concessioner would be discrimination against license buyers who can not afford the rental price of boats, and

Whereas, the concessioner should not rent boats to fishermen under sixteen years of age, fishing to most youngsters would be limited to Saturdays and Sundays and holidays, and

Whereas, the fishing season runs in part concurrently with school vacation, prohibiting youngsters from fishing from shore would not help the juvenile problem, but would add to it, and

Whereas, the trout have grown from an average of six and one-half inches when planted to better than twelve inches average now, due to the abundance of fish food in the lake, and

Whereas, the problem of patrolling of the banks would exist under any plan,

Therefore Be It Resolved, by District Council No. 7, Associated Sportsmen of California, that we petition the Education and Parks Committee of the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco not to consider Section 49 as it is now written.

Be It Further Resolved, that the Board of Supervisors do pass an ordinance prohibiting fishing from the banks of the lakes except from designated sections which would be open to fishing seven days a week, i.e., the Storm Water Causeway and 500 feet adjacent each end on the south lake and the floats now in place in the north lake.

Be It Further Resolved, that the Board of Supervisors write into the ordinance a daily Bag Limit of TWO fish per person.

Be It Further Resolved, that a permit System of fishing be applied to persons of license age, with the moneys from the permit sales to be used for patrolling the lakes and enforcing the two-fish limit, and that the annual fee be not more than fifty cents.

Passed at the regular meeting of Council No. 7, Associated Sportsmen of California, August 3, 1950.

Passed at the regular meeting of the Daly City Rod & Gun Club August 9, 1950.

That Was No Ink Spot, That Was A Chipmunk

Ever hear of a black chipmunk?

Neither had State Trapper Lauer A. Foster when he spotted the none-such animal near his home. After six weeks of trap-baiting, he caught the ebony prize alive.

Mammalologists at the University of California were surprised too. They labeled the rarity a melanistic steelhead chipmunk, and asked for the speciment for the University collection.

While coyotes, bobcats and foxes are his nomal prey, Foster is seeking another of the jet-black chipmunks. Object: little black chipmunks.

Mossi Has Bad Week Pitching For Bakersfield

Don Mossi, Jeff High's all-around athlete, wasn't doing so well this week with the Bakersfield team in the California League.

During the past two weeks he has dropped two games from his position on the mound.

Monday night he was defeated 5 to 0 by Modesto which gives him a season record of five wins and nine losses.

Bad Check Artist Hits Belli For $10

A woman, described as about 21 years old, stout and of middle height, cashed a bad check for $10. The check was drawn on the Bank of America, Knoxville, Iowa, branch.

All merchants are advised to be careful of cashing any check without positive identification, police warned.

All Eligible Men Urged To Register For National Draft

Harry M. Kimbal, special agent in charge of the San Francisco office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, today urged all eligible men to comply fully with provisions of the Selective Act of 1948.

In discussing provisions of the Act and affirmative steps eligible men may take to avoid delinquency, Kimball said that a violation of the Selective Service Act of 1948 is a very serious matter. The Act is designed to provide for the common defense by increasing the personnel of the armed forces of the United States and provide for their training. A wilful violator may be subjected to stringent penalties including imprisonment up to five years, or a fine as high as $10,000 or both.

Kimball said that recently J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, had suggested, for the benefit of those not familiar with the requirements, observance of the following:

1. Register promptly.
2. Fill out and return your questionnaire promptly.
3. Keep your local board advised of your current mailing address.
4. Report for examination and induction when so ordered.
5. Report changes in your family status or occupation which may have a bearing on your classification.
6. Always carry your registration certificate and classification notice on your person.
7. If you have made an honest mistake, talk it over with your local board.

All male persons residing in the United States or its posessions between the ages of eighteen and twenty-six are required to register. Persons becoming eighteen must register within five days after their eighteenth birthday.

Daly City residents register at Draft Board No. 57, 45 N. B street, San Mateo.

SLOW DOWN AND BE SAFE

When blinded by the glare of oncoming headlights, the wise motorist doesn't just trust to luck and keep rolling, advises the National Automobile Club. He knows that it is better to slow down and be safe than to speed on and be sorry.

Westlake Home To Be Given Away

One way of moving into a fine Westlake home without paying more than a few cents for the privilege was revealed today by the Saints and Sinners.

The San Francisco milk fund campaign group is offering, as one of 11 awards in a September 17 contest, a Colonial style Westlake home.

Purpose of the contest is to raise money to purchase milk for undernourished children in 62 public and 19 parochial schools.

Assisting the Saints and Sinners in their worthy task, Henry Doelger volunteered to give them one of his finest homes as a first prize.

The home is now open for public inspection every afternoon from noon to 6 p. m. and week ends from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. It is located on the corner of N. Mayfair and Fieldcrest drive, just west of Junipero Serra on the extension of Highway No. 1.

Featuring 18th century furnishings, the three bedroom home is decorated by Lachman Brothers. There is no charge for admission, although tickets for the September 17 contest may be purchased at the house.

FISHING IMPROVES ON MERCED RIVER

Trout fishing has improved lately along the Merced River in the Mariposa county area, according to the National Automobile Club.

King Neptune's Daughter To Reign At SM County Fair

A "King Neptune's Daughter" contest will be held during "San Mateo Day," Sunday, September 10, at the San Mateo County Fair.

The winner will be given merchandise prizes and will share the throne of King Neptune when he crowns the winners of the 1950 Shark Derby, annual shark fishing competition, on the following Sunday, September 17, at Coyote Point, near San Mateo.

According to general Chairman Jack Edwards the only requirements are that each entry be beautiful in a swim suit with a "nymph-like" figure and be from 16 to 26 years of age.

The San Mateo Lions Club and the Coyote Point Yacht Club, who are co-sponsoring the Shark Derby and the "Daughter" contest, have issued invitations to Lions Clubs, Yacht Clubs and Chambers of Commerce in the Bay area. Any organization may participate.

Three glossy photographs of each proposed "King Neptune's Daughter" with a statement of her sponsoring organization, name, address and phone number should be forwarded to the 1950 Shark Derby Committee, P. O. Box 755, San Mateo, no later than August 31.

Highway Patrol Needs Officers

The ranks of the California Highway Patrol are to be increased as a result of legislative action authorizing the employment of additional State traffic officers.

Commissioner Clifford E. Peterson of the Patrol advises the new officers will be appointed from employment lists established by competitive civil service examinations to be held throughout California October 7. Applications must be filed with State personnel board offices on or before September 8.

Recruitment representatives of the Board have advised that qualified candidates must be high school graduates, meet rigid physical standards, and be within the age limits of 21 and 35 to be eligible to compete in the test.

Physical requirements are normal hearing, sound physical condition, strength, endurance, and agility, normal visual function and acuity, not less than 20/40 in each eye without correction and corrected 20/20. Applicants must be not less than 5 feet 9 inches nor more than 6 feet 4 inches and have a waist measurement not in excess of the chest measurement in repose.

Those who qualify in the competitive civil service examination and are appointed must also successfully complete a formal course of training at the California Highway Patrol Academy in Sacramento before they receive permanent appointment.

Bulletin giving full details and application forms may be obtained at State Peronnel Board offices at 107 State Building, San Francisco.

SECOND MAKES GOOD BRAKE

Just as second speed makes the best combination for a quick getaway so does it make one of the best ways of stopping quickly in traffic, points out the National Automobile Club. When the spurt of speed is simply a matter of skinning past a few snailing cars, and stopping again behind a street car some two hundred feet ahead, remaining in second will be found handy for the entire job of speeding up and slowing down. Nine-tenths of the job can be done with the throttle, which is a bit closer to the ideal in speed control.

AUTOMOTIVE PRODUCTION

American automotive factories turned out a total of 856,626 motor vehicles during the month of June 1950, reports the National Automobile Club. Of this total 720,688 were passenger cars, 135,332 were trucks, and 606 were buses.

EARLIEST HUMAN HABITATION

Evidence of the earliest human habitation on this continent was discovered near the little town of Folsom in northeastern New Mexico, according to the National Automobile Club.

Three Young Damsels Seek Mission Crown

Three lovely young ladies in quest of a Queenship and each with a good chance to win victory are Misses Pat Stanley, Calla McDonald and Barbara Johnson, all candidates for Queen of the September State Centennial Celebration.

The contest is being sponsored by the Mission Street Merchants Association with that enterprising organization's president, Joseph S. Ravinsky, serving as general chairman of the entire week-long celebration from September 2 to 9. Climaxing the round of festivities will be one of the biggest parades in San Francisco's history September 6. The marching will be under the direction of Charles P. Teevin.

Miss Stanley, who, in the second week's tabulation of votes in this campaign, leaped into fourth place, within the winning circle of five, is conducting one of the more energetic personal campaigns and is considered a real threat to the two leaders in the race, exotic Mae Tai Sing, dancing star of Fong Wan's Club Shanghai, and Esther Pigg, popular hostess of Manning's Mission Coffee Shop.

Miss Stanley, who was the runner-up in the recent Cable Car Carnival Queen contest, is an accomplished roller and ice skater with many friends throughout the city.

Both Miss McDonald and Miss Johnson are campaigning in the manner of experienced vote-seekers and are making decided headway in gaining ground as the contest approaches its climax August 24, when the final count of votes will be made.

Among the fifteen candidates going all out to score a victory in this unusual race is June English, the pretty incumbent Mission Miracle Maid, who has clung onto third place from the very beginning and is reported to be gaining ground rapidly.

The latest entries in the race, Betty Yeckle, stenographer of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and Patsy Dukich are expected to be heard from favorably in the future tabulations of votes.

WALKING AT NIGHT

Many pedestrians are killed each year while walking along rural highways at night, warns the National Automobile Club. If you must walk along the open highway at night, walk on the left side facing into oncoming traffic, wear or carry something white, or even carry a lighted flashlight. By doing so you will help keep yourself safe.

Final "Derby" Whist Game Due Tuesday

The last game of the "Derby" Whist will be played Tuesday, August 15, in Eagles Hall, 3345 San Jose avenue.

Sponsored by the Colma Vista Grande Aerie Unit No. 1848 FOE Auxiliary, the whist party gets underway at 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Dora Black is chairman for the event. The public is invited to attend.

For a short time during the American revolution, New York City was the nation's capital.

SLIPPING CLUTCH
A slipping automobile clutch results in fuel wastage, says the California State Automibile Association. The slippage causes power loss between the engine and the driving wheels.

SF Bridge Ramp To Get Signals

Traffic control signals soon will be installed at the end of the Bay Bridge First Street off-ramp, First and Clementina streets, as a result of state approval of the city's request. State approval was required because the bridge is under State control. An additional installation will be made a block away at Fremont and Clementina streets.

The First and Clementina intersection has been called "junkyard junction" by San Francisco police. So far this year there have been 23 accidents at the junction with 17 persons injured. A total of 145 accidents have been investigated there since October 1946, when police first requested approval for the traffic control installation.

It is estimated the light system will cost $10,000. Work will be commenced as soon as bids are solicited and received, the police department said.

KEEP THE TOOLS IN SHAPE
One of the points where the efficiency of thousands of motorists suffers a severe breakdown is in the matter of keeping the tools in orderly condition, declares the National Automobile Club. Many have the habit of leaving the pliers, wrenches, and other repair equipment lying around the garage when they have finished a piece of work. It is a wise plan to put the tools away carefully immediately after the job is completed. If this is done, the next repair job will be greatly facilitated.

FLAG OF THE UNITED NATIONS UNFURLED IN KOREA—This is the official emblem of the United Nations which is displayed along with the flags of the United States and other nations actively engaged in the defense of the Republic of Korea—Great Britain, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and The Netherlands. The United Nations flag is a white world globe, viewed from above the north pole, and enclosed in two olive branches, resting on a field of light blue.

Woman Stars In Unusual Sales Job

Outstanding success in an unusual field for women—selling trucks to large operators of automotive equipment—is the record of Mrs. Dorothy Dennis, fleet sales manager of a large Chevrolet dealership in St. Louis and believed to be the only woman in the country to occupy such a position in the automobile industry. Entering the highly competitive fleet business, Mrs. Dennis established a notable record in the sale of cars and trucks to owners of large fleets in the middlewest. Pictured above with two officials of the United Van Lines, Mrs. Dennis says the formula for sales success consists of hard work, enthusiasm and customer service.

U. S. ARMY CAPTAIN BRINGS JAPANESE MUSIC TO AMERICA

CAPT. STEWART

When Captain Kermit G. Stewart, an infantry officer, returned from years of combat duty in the Southwest Pacific and the Orient he brought a briefcase full of contemporary Japanese piano music, and is playing it in non-professional recitals for the benefit of American audiences. Much of this music has never before been heard in America.

Among the first to land in Japan in September 1945, Captain Stewart began the study of Japanese music and the Japanese language. In his more than three years of duty in Japan he devoted his spare time to presenting programs of American music to Japanese audiences.

At the invitation of the president of the Ueno Academy of Music, Japan's outstanding conservatoire, he lectured to the faculty on American public school music methods. In the spring of 1947 he conducted the Toho Symphony Orchestra in a series of four Gershwin Memorial concerts at the Imperial Theater in Tokyo, thus becoming the first American to conduct a major Japanese symphonic organization since the war—and one of the few foreign conductors to conduct rehearsals in the Japanese language. He also participated in numerous joint recitals of American music with the well-known Japanese soprano, Miss Akiko Asakura.

One of Japan's foremost music critics, Mr. Takatoshi Kyogoku, recently wrote to Captain Stewart, "I believe your recitals including Japanese works have progressed cultural relations between Japan and America and have helped toward an understanding of Japan by the American people."

Captain Stewart, now on duty with the Office of Military History in Washington, served in New Guinea and the Philippines early in the war and earned the Silver and Bronze Stars for conduct under fire. Prior to the war he had been a public school supervisor of music in Nebraska (his native state), New York and New Jersey.

With school opening early next month, many families can purchase needed children's clothing at St. Vincent DePaul, 6740 Mission, it was noted today.

Mrs. Morton, Thrift Shop manager, said the clothes and shoes are sold at a low price to families who otherwise would not be able to outfit their children.

Have you zealously saved left-over egg yolks to find they dried out? Well, from now on, cover them with cold water and store in a covered dish in the refrigerator. They'll be as moist and ready for use as the day you robbed them of their whites.

In lieu of a gilt-edged electric grill, you can toast sandwiches in a skillet on top of the range. Simply melt 1 tablespoon of vitaminized margarine in the pan and when sizzling hot toast the sandwich in it on both sides until golden brown.

In these times of housing shortages and cramped living quarters, you must decorate with an eye to space. Avoid cat-a-corner arrangements since they tend to make a room cluttered and disorganized.

Do odd stockings have you tied in knots? Well, you can cut yourself free with a good color remover and an all-purpose stocking dye. Choose a light shade to match the sheers and pastels you'll be wearing this Spring and Summer.

If there's a stale taste in your ice cubes, it's probably because the refrigerator and ice cube trays are harboring food odors. Once a week you should wash down the refrigerator and trays with soda and warm water, about three tablespoons of soda to a quart of water. Then your ice cubes are sure to be sweet and fresh.

BIG WIND DID THIS—Ray Koerner, Chenoa, Ill., farmer stands knee-deep in corn which leaked from government storage bin at Chenoa after a freak 50-mile-an-hour wind drove a fence post through the bin wall. The storm wrecked 20 empty grain storage bins and caused other damage in the town.

Chicken Pox Prevalent D.C. July Disease

Three Daly City residents suffered from an attack of chicken pox during July, the San Mateo County Department of Public Health reported today.

This was the most prevalent disease in the community during July. There were also two cases of measles reported, one case of poliomyelitis (Jerome Ennis, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ennis, 139 Irvington street. He is to return from the hospital Saturday). Mumps gonorrhea and syphilis also accounted for one case each.

Colma had one case of chicken pox, and mumps.

SAY GOODBYE, THEN GO

Just how much fuel is wasted by the practice of starting the engine and then beginning a conversation is difficult to calculate, but it certainly represents a tremendous total of lost gasoline, according to the National Automobile Club. The book of etiquette claims that when a guest has reached the point of holding the knob of the door handle he ought to make the farewell as brief as possible and be on his way. In motoring it's not only a matter of etiquette but a saving of gas to make aurevoir and cranking simultaneous.

PACIFIC HOUSE

Pacific House up in El Dorado county was the halting place of many a famous wanderer in the early days, according to the National Automobile Club. Here stopped such famous people as Horace Greeley, Mark Twain, and Thomas Starr King.

The 15,478,570 U. S. anglers who purchased fishing licenses in 1949 paid State conservation agencies a total of $32,657,940 for the privilege, reports the Fish and Wildlife Service.

NAVY GIVES AIR FORCE CAPTAIN A GIANT CAKE—It doesn't make much news when a naval aviator makes a "thousandth" landing on a carrier. But when the Air Force does it, then it's news. Captain Curtis N. Metcalf, of Tatum, Texas, an exchange pilot, made the 22,000th landing on the Carrier Philippine Sea during exercise Portrex. In honor of the event the ship's bakers made him a 650-pound cake eight feet long. Rear Admiral M. T. Schoeffel (left), commander of Carrier Division 6, congratulates Metcalf. Then the entire ship's company enjoyed the king-size pastry.

Mr. Reader was born in Germany in 1868. At Philadelphia in 1893 he enlisted in the Navy. In 1898 he served on the USS Olympia, Admiral George Dewey's flagship, in the battle of Manila Bay. He also saw service on the USS Holland, America's first submarine. He was honorably discharged from the Navy in 1903. During 40 years thereafter he held a responsible position with the Safety Car Heating and Lighting Company.

The Navy's birthday message follows: "Congratulations on your 82nd birthday and your long years of service to American business following an active career in the U. S. Navy. It has not been forgotten that your services included duty in the USS Holland, our first submarine, and that you served under Admiral Dewey on the Olympia in the battle of Manila Bay. Best wishes for a fair wind and a following sea for the years to come."

CHECK HOSE CLAMPS

An occasional inspection of your car's radiator hose clamps to make sure they are tight is recommended by the California State Automobile Association. A slight leak resulting in loss of water from the cooling system may cause the motor to overheat. These leaks are more apt to occur while the motor is running, with resultant water pressure against hose conections.

DANGER ZONES

Danger lurks at every intersection, whether you walk or drive, cautions the California State Automobile Association. Afoot or awheel, keep alert to traffic movements. Don't get caught unawares.

HIGHWAY KILLER

Excessive speed on the highway is a major cause of traffic fatalities, says the California State Automobile Association, which defines excessive speed as any speed too fast for prevailing conditions. On your vacation driving, "Take It Easy" — don't speed.

Ticklers By George

ANGLING ANGLES by old Hi

From Ohio comes a letter saying: "Two of us boys are planning a trip into Northern Wisconsin this summer, near a lake where muskies are caught. We don't know much about fishing for muskies aside from the fact that most people troll. We have trolled for northerns so know how that is done. What we don't know is what baits should be used for muskellunge."

One of the best bets for trolling is the fluted spoon with feathers; the blade of size number five or six, and the hooks of size 2/0. A great many large muskies have been taken on this type of lure. When these fish are in very deep water, though, you'll find that the chrome-plated wobbler with single hook and the tail of a sucker or chub makes an excellent attractor.

If the wobbler doesn't do the trick, then troll with a deep-running jointed plug with red head and white body. This is an effective musky lure in most lakes and rivers of the north country, especially in late afternoon fishing. You'll have to coax the muskies harder in the warm logy days of summer than you would in the prime days of autumn.

As pointed out in Old Hi's booklet, "Fishing For The Millions," muskies often follow a lure some distance without striking. This occurs while you are trolling, to a certain extent, but more often while bait casting in the coves and bays and past rocky points. You may gain their cooperation by varying the action of your retrieve, but usually the best plan is to "rest" the water for a few hours, then return with a different spoon or plug.

You may have a free copy of "Fishing For The Millions" by sending your request to me, Old Hi, in care of this newspaper. At the same time ask for your free copies of "Salt Water Sports Fishing" and "Pacific Coastal Fishing." These illustrated books will answer many of your questions on the tackle and methods to use in taking the principal pan and game fish in both fresh and salt waters.

If you live along the East or West coastline, you'll find that croakers (like the corvina, white sea bass and yellowfin croaker) will give you plenty of sport on light tackle at this time of the season, day or night. Soft shelled crabs, seaworms, clams and mussels make fine baits. The proper tackle to use is described in the booklets mentioned above.

Old Hi was asked to recommend a fly which would appeal to both fresh and salt water small game fish. Just tuck a few streamer flies into your plastic fly box or leather book, and you'll have a real winner.

Soap Box Derby Finals Slated August 13

The thirteenth running of the All-American Soap Box Derby, sponsored by many of the nation's leading newspapers and the Chevrolet Motor Division, will be held at Akron August 13.

It will be a lucky day for the 150 competing champions, all of whom win a prize for being in the race. To the winner is awarded a four-year, $5,000 college scholarship. A Chevrolet sedan goes to the runner-up.

The 60,000 who are expected to witness the event will find it a lucky day, too. They will witness a special match race, which precedes the main event, between three well-known celebrities: Wilbur Shaw, three-time Indianapolis Speedway winner; Jimmy Stewart, motion picture star; and Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion. To thrill the youngsters, Bill (Hopalong Cassidy) Boyd will appear in a pre-race parade and will referee the special match race. The celebrities will race in fantastic-appearing coasting cars of unique design.

For the first time, the champion of more than 30,000 boys who entered Soap Box Derby races in the U. S. Occupied Zone of Germany will race in the National Finals at Akron. The Derby races in Germany are co-sponsored by The Army's Program for German youth and the Adam Opel Co., General Motors subsidiary.

Bay Area Industry Up 62 Per Cent

Industrial development in the Bay Area for the past six months is up 62 per cent over the same period in 1949.

The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce reported $29,583,870 was spent for industrial development over the first half of 1950.

In San Francisco alone four new plants were established, and 13 companies began expansion programs, the chamber said.

The Bay region, including 12 counties, accounted for a total capital outlay of $9,127,400, with investment in 11 new plants and 49 expansions, the chamber survey added.

Mount Diablo in Contra Costa County is one of the highest peaks in the central Coast Ranges, 3,849 feet.

Legion Is Asked To Give Blood

Every American Legion Post in San Mateo county is being alerted to play a vital part in this country's Korean war effort.

Today, Herman Johnson of San Carlos, 26th district commander of the Legion, sent out appeals to each Legion commander to have Legionnaires aid in building up a supply of whole blood and plasma for use in military hospitals. Johnson, in making the appeal, calls attention to the fact that the Army plans bringing as many war wounded as possible to California hospitals.

He is asking that all Legionnaires enroll as blood donors at the San Mateo County Blood Bank, 25 S. El Camino Real, San Mateo.

Johnson calls attention to the county bank having been alerted to be in readiness to supply whole blood and plasma for war wounded. He likewise informs the Post commanders that so great is the peacetime demands on the blood bank that unless new donors come forward, it will be unable to heed the wartime call on its resources.

The American Legion Posts maintain blood credits at the county bank, making withdrawals available for members and their families when emergency transfusions are necessary.

Johnson said that he feels certain that as soon as Legion members realize the urgency of his appeal they will immediately telephone the blood bank for appointment to become donors.

Vet Employment Rights Cited

Anyone in San Mateo county now entering or reentering the nation's armed forces is entitled to be restored to his job if basic requirements of federal law are met, according to Floyd D. Granger, veterans service officer.

In his capacity as local reemployment rights committeeman for the U. S. Department of Labor, Granger has received numerous questions along this line from veterans, employers and potential servicemen.

The recent extension of the Selective Service Act of 1948 made no change in the reemployment provisions of that act except to lengthen eligibility to persons entering service before July 9, 1951, he pointed out. This means not only that the qualified servicemen gets his job back, but also that he shall not lose any status because of military service. He accrues seniority while in service, and is entitled, upon return to his old job, to the same benefits he would have enjoyed if he had been continuously employed.

There is no distinction made between volunteers and inductees, except that periods of enlistment and of reserve active duty are limited to three years in order to make sure of eligibility. Satisfactory completion of training and service and application within 90 days of discharge are other requirements.

Seal Stadium in San Francisco is the largest roofless baseball arena in the United States.

Men And Women Needed By Navy

Applications are desired from Enlisted Women of the Naval Reserve for recall to active duty for an obligated period of One Year.

Enlisted women desired for active duty are as follows: All Reserve Classes in pay grades E4 through E7 (Petty Officers third class through Chief Petty Officers) in general and emergency service ratings in the following rating groups Only: teleman, radioman, communications technician, yeoman, personnelman, machine accountant, storekeeper, disbursing storekeeper, aerographer, tradevman, aviation storekeeper, hospitalman, and dental technician.

Applicants must be physically qualified and have at least one-year obligated service. Those with less than one-lear obligated service may extend their enlistments.

Young Men — If you're a high school graduate the Navy assures you at time of enlistment of attending one of the many vocational schools upon completion of recruit training. In addition to basic submarine and airman schools there are over 30 other schools available.

Non-high school graduates are also eligible to attend any of the training schools. However, they are selected for the schools on a competitive basis at the Navy Training Center, San Diego, as a result of the marks which they make on a second classification test.

Send A Service Man The D. C. Record—Free

As a public service, The Daly City Record will be sent to all Daly City men in the armed services free of charge.

Knowing how much news of the "home town" interestss men away from home, the Record is reinstating its policy of World War II.

Parents and relatives of men now serving with any branch of the service may have the Daly City Record sent to their service men by calling PLaza 5-4321.

This offer is made to men who are from Daly City, Westlake, Broadmoor and Colma.
